

Drossopoulou Panagiota, Technical staff

Tourism Management Department, University of Patras

Drossopoulou Panagiota, Member of the Special Technical Staff (ETEP) in the Tourism Management Department of the University of Patras, was born in Athens and lives in Patras. She graduated from the high school of N. Psychiko in Athens, and she is a graduate of the Higher School of Business Executives - Department of Tourism Businesses (K.A.T.E.). The above degree, by act of the Technological Education Institute (TEI) of Patras Council 25/4.7.95, according to the Law 1865/89, was equated with the degree of the Tourism Enterprises Department - School of Management and Economics of TEI. At the same time, she is a graduate of the School of Education PA.TE.S./S.E.L.E.T.E. and the ON LINE School in Hotel Computerization.

She has worked for about 14 years in the field of Hotel Business in various positions (TABLISTE, Computer Manager in the Control department, Cleaning Department Manager, Restaurant, Bar, Canteen, Self Service, etc.).

She has taught in Vocational Training Institutes, in Vocational secondary education schools and in apprenticeship schools of the National Manpower Employment Agency (OAED) for more than 15 years. Also, she worked for eight years (2001 to 2008) as a Laboratory Associate in the Tourism Enterprises Department of the School of Management and Economics - Technological Education Institute of Patras, and from 2008 until today she has been working as a member of the special technical staff (ETEP) in the Tourism Enterprises Department of the TEI of Patras and then in the Tourism Management Department of the University of Patras, where she supports the Department's laboratories.